Public Service Announcement	15 days prior to the hearing	April 5, 2022
Public Notice	As part of the alternative posting allowance, notice was posted at the Garden City Hall, Garden City Police Department, and Garden City Library	April 5, 2022

7. The agenda was posted in the Garden City lobby and on the Garden City website in accordance with Idaho Code 74-204.
8. Comments were received by the following agencies:
 - a. None
9. Written comments were received by the following members of the public:
 - a. Greg Hahn
 - b. Jodi Eichelberger
10. On May 2, 2022, a public hearing before the Garden City Design Review Committee was held:
 - a. Garden City Attorney, Charles Wadams, presented the application.
 - b. Garden City Development Services Director, Jenah Thornborrow, presented the staff report.
 - c. Public testimony was heard from:

- I. Greg Hahn in favor of keeping the district and branding while revamping the code to meet current market standards.
- II. Hannah Ball in opposition; difficult to merge residential and commercial uses within an area that has been historically commercial. If the Live-Work-Create overlay is recalled, the Garden City Code 8-4D provisions prevail. 8-4D commercial parking standards need to be re-evaluated.
- III. Jason Jones in opposition to code re-write without neighborhood work sessions. Live-Work-Create parking standards are more straightforward than the 8-4D sections of the Garden City Code.
- d. Charles Wadams provided a rebuttal:
 - I. Committee could continue the application to the date certain if they feel the application needs additional work.
- e. Public testimony was closed.
- f. Discussion included:
 - I. The code should be re-written in such a way that there are design districts that match the Garden City Comprehensive Plan as opposed to having generalized parking standards.
 - a. The existing base zoning district requirements are not indicative of the envisioned Comprehensive Plan Neighborhoods.
 - II. We need to maximize parking, not minimize it.
 - a. Garage vs. covered parking.
 - III. Modify the Live-Work-Create District vs. eliminate it.
 - a. Make it a more usable overlay.
 - b. Fix it so that the overlay is used more.
 - IV. Work sessions with the community would prove beneficial.
 - V. Difference between Live-Work-Create uses and Design District.
 - a. Home offices are already permitted, the code has almost made it more difficult to support live-work units.
 - VI. Planned Unit Developments are being used as a way to avoid code standards.
 - VII. The mandate does not have a required deadline. However, the specific items, such as the required findings, should be decided upon soon rather than later while the rest of the overlay's provisions get addressed at a later date.
- g. Decision:
 - 1. Committee Member Labrie moved to continue to a date certain of June 6, 2022.
 - 2. Committee Member Labrie seconded the motion.
 - 3. The motion carried unanimously.

11. On June 6, 2022, a public hearing before the Garden City Design Review Committee was held:

- a. It was noted that the item was properly noticed, but not on the agenda in a timely manner. It was clarified that the hearing could be held, but would need to be continued for formal action.
 - b. Jessica Steadman provided a staff report.
 - c. Public testimony was heard from:
 - I. Jason Jones; 1:1 ratio. Committee full of neighborhood residents to provide input on code.
 - II. Hannah Ball; create a board or group for code discussion and collaboration.
 - d. Jessica Steadman did not provide a rebuttal.
 - e. Discussion included:
 - I. The city needs to take a further look at the Live-Work-Create overlay code.
 - II. Work session for additional input would prove helpful.
 - III. Flexibility is encouraged. Allows for the purpose and vision to be obtained.
 - IV. 1:1 ratio needs to be looked at. Action would not preclude looking at this more thoroughly.
 - f. There was no action on the application.
 - g. The item was continued to the date certain of June 20, 2022, for formal action.
12. On June 20, 2022, the item was approved on the consent agenda, and the approval of the recommendation document be continued to a date certain to July 18, 2018.
13. On July 18, 2022, the item the recommendation was approved on the consent agenda.
14. The record contains:

RECOMMENDATION

WHEREFORE, based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law contained herein, the Design Review Committee hereby does RECOMMEND APPROVAL/ DENIAL OF THE PROPOSED CHANGES, subject to the following conditions:

1. The changes to the Garden City Code 8-3C are intended to address immediate code needs, but should not be permanent.
2. Garden City Code 8-3C should not be repealed.
3. The city should convene a workgroup of professionals and stakeholders including newer landowners who have purchased in the community in order to:
 - a. Provide standards that will implement the Live-Work-Create neighborhood as identified in the Comprehensive Plan.
 - b. Identify and amend sections of the code that are precluding the code from being utilized.
 - c. Review the 1:1 ratio.
 - d. Review other sections of Title 8 that foster a request for waivers to code.
4. If any term or provision of this decision, to any extent, is held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining terms and provisions hereof shall not be affected thereby, but each such remaining term and provision shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.
