C. Project Information

Proposed Scope of Work:

This application is for a subdivision and a Planned Unit Development per Garden City Code 8-7A-2 Definition of Terms:

Subdivision: The result of an act of dividing an original lot, tract or parcel of land into two (2) or more parts for the purpose of transfer of ownership or development; which may also include easements and the dedication of a public street or designation of private lanes or rights-of-way, and the addition to, or creation of, a cemetery

Planned Unit Development: Property planned as a whole that demonstrates innovation in design to protect natural features or create public amenities through more flexible standards, such as lot sizes, densities and setbacks, than those restrictions that would normally apply under these regulations.

Purpose of a Planned Unit Development

A. Purpose: The intent of this section is to provide for well planned developments which conform to the objectives of this title but may deviate in certain respects from the zoning map and the district regulations. It is not the intent that the planned unit development process be used solely for the purposes of deviation from the dimensional standards in the district unless the following objectives are also achieved:

1. Provide a maximum choice of living environments by allowing a variety of housing and building types and permitting an increased density per acre and a reduction in lot dimensions, yards, building setbacks and area requirements.
2. Create a more useful pattern of open space and recreation areas; and, if permitted as part of the project, more convenience in the location of accessory commercial uses, industrial uses, and services.
3. Establish a development pattern which preserves and utilizes natural topography and geologic features, scenic vistas, trees, and other vegetation and prevents the disruption of natural drainage patterns.
4. Use land more efficiently than is generally achieved through conventional development resulting in substantial savings through shorter utilities and streets.
5. Develop a land pattern in harmony with land use density, transportation, and community facilities objectives of the comprehensive plan.

D. Discussion

This appears to be an application that conforms with most of Garden City Code, the Garden City Comprehensive Plan and other pertinent plans, and there is no public opposition to date.

Overview

The application consists of two separate parcels totaling 1.38 acres, which are to be subdivided into a residential subdivision and planned unit development (PUD) consisting of twenty-two townhomes and one common lot. The development proposes access to the property through a common drive with an entrance from E. 45th Street. The proposed density of the project is 16du/acre, and is located within the R-3 High-Density Residential base zoning district as well as the Mixed Use Commercial future land use designation of the Comprehensive Plan.

Planned Unit Development

Per the application's narrative, the development intends to meet the PUD's variety of housing requirements by providing a variety of two- and three- unit structures, with four different building types. Each building consists of stucco, horizontal siding, Hardie board panel siding and brick, with color variations in an attempt to further meet the variety of housing requirements of the PUD. Floorplans have slight variations, but all units consist of living, kitchen and dining on the first floor, three bedrooms on the second floor and a two-car garage.

A section of PUD code requires that in any development that which proposes 10 or more dwelling units shall provide a variety of housing types. The proposed variety shall include attached units (townhouses, duplexes), detached units (patio homes), single-family and multifamily units; provided, that the overall density limit of the district is maintained. This application does not propose a variety of housing types in that all 22 units are 3-bedroom. It does however appear to meet the architectural variety requirement of the PUD by providing similarly designed product with different color pallets.

Please note, during the January 19, 2021, meeting the Design Review Committee discussed the criteria related to the requirement for a variety of housing to be provided when utilizing the Planned Unit Development ordinance. The Design Review Committee reviews architectural variety, design, and aesthetics whereas the Planning and Zoning Commission reviews the variety of housing types (multi-family, townhome, single family, etc.) proposed. The Planning and Zoning Commission makes their approval or denial recommendation based on how well the proposal meets the variety of housing needs of our community.

Waivers

As a PUD development, the applicant can submit waivers to code standards such as minimum setbacks to allow for different setback dimensions, for allowing a greater number of lots to be accessible off a common drive and proposing noncompliant parking space sizes and amounts. The applicant has provided a formal request for the waivers mentioned above. However, staff has also drafted an additional waiver based on code compliance issues discovered through analysis, see below:

1. Setback standards, allowing for custom setbacks (yet to be identified)

E. Decision Process

General Provisions

This application is processed per GCC 8-6A-7 Public Hearing.

Required Decisions: The following decision processes are required for the project as governed by GCC Table 8-6A-1:

Decision		Recommendation Authority/ Hearing Date	Decision Authority
Combined Preliminary/Final Subdivision	Plat	Planning and Zoning Commission: Hearing June 21, 2023	City Council: Hearing July 10, 2023
And Planned Development	Unit	and Design Review Consultation: May 1, 2023

Required Findings:

For the approval of a COMBINED PRELIMINARY AND FINAL PLAT SUBDIVISION, the decision making body must find the application meets the following findings, found in GCC 8-5B-5:

- A. The subdivision is in conformance with the comprehensive plan;
- B. The subdivision is in conformance with all applicable provisions of this title;
- C. Public services are available or can be made available; and are adequate to accommodate the proposed development;
- D. The subdivision is in conformance with scheduled public improvements in accord with the city's capital improvement program;
- E. There is public financial capability of supporting services for the proposed development;
- F. The development will not be detrimental to the public health, safety or general welfare; and
- G. The development preserves significant natural, scenic or historic features;

PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENT: To approve a planned unit development, the decision-making body must find the application meets the following findings, found in GCC 8-6B-7.E:

- A. The applicant has demonstrated that the proposed development can be initiated within two (2) years of the date of approval;

- B. Each individual unit of the development, as well as the total development, can exist as an independent unit capable of creating an environment of sustained desirability and stability or that adequate assurance will be provided that such objective will be attained; the uses proposed will not be detrimental to present and potential surrounding uses, but will have a beneficial effect which would not be achieved under standard district regulations;
- C. The streets and thoroughfares proposed are suitable and adequate to carry anticipated traffic and increased densities will not generate traffic in such amounts as to overload the street network outside the PUD;
- D. Any proposed commercial development can be justified at the locations proposed;
- E. Any exception from standard district requirements is warranted by the design and other amenities incorporated in the final development plan, in accordance with the PUD and the adopted policy of the council;
- F. The area surrounding said development can be planned and zoned in coordination and substantial compatibility with the proposed development;
- G. The PUD is in general conformance with the comprehensive plan; and
- H. The existing and proposed utility services are adequate for the population densities and nonresidential uses proposed.

Because the application is a Planned Unit Development, the Decision Maker must also find compliance with Conditional Use Permit findings, found in GCC 8-6B-2. D:

1. The use is appropriate to the location, the lot, and the neighborhood, and is compatible with the uses permitted in the applicable zoning district;
2. The use will be supported by adequate public facilities or services to the surrounding area, or conditions can be established to mitigate adverse impacts
3. The use will not unreasonably diminish either the health, safety, or welfare of the community; and
4. The use is not in conflict with the comprehensive plan or other adopted plans, policies, or ordinances of the city.

Decision

After hearing the evidence and considering the application, the decision maker shall make their decision. The decision maker shall report the facts upon which it based its conclusion, the ordinance and standards used in evaluating the application, the actions, if any, that the applicant could take to obtain a permit, and whether a permit is granted, granted with conditions, or denied. The decision maker shall make its findings and decision no later than by the next regular scheduled meeting.

Pursuant to Garden City Code Table 8-6A-1 Authorities and Processes, the Design Consultant and Planning and Zoning Commission are recommending authorities and the City Council is the final decision maker for the requested application.
